

INSTITUTIONAL BIOSAFETY COMMITTEE

Function

Supervise the use of recombinant DNA within the university to ensure that the federal guidelines pertaining to this activity are satisfied.

Supervision of all infectious materials used on campus to ensure that the local, state, and federal rules and regulations are understood and observed.

For more information about the Institutional Biosafety Committee, please contact the Office of Research and Creative Activities.

Updated: January 16, 2015