

INTERNSHIPS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Responsible to	Associate Academic Vice President–Undergraduate Studies, Brad L. Neiger
Duration	Indefinite
Chair	Kristine Hansen English
Members	Lynn Elliott Kennedy Center Susan Griffith Law School Dale Cressman Communications Scott Dunaway Family, Home, & Social Science Frost Steele Nutrition, Dietetics, & Food Science Jay Oliver McKay School of Education Kevin Marett Social Work Gale Larson Life Sciences Masakazu Watabe Asian & Near Eastern Languages
Function	Recommend academic and administrative standards and other policies regarding internship programs and off-campus applied (experiential) learning courses throughout the university. Review and make recommendations regarding proposals for new internship and experiential learning courses or programs for domestic and international areas. Conduct regular reviews of existing academic internship and applied learning courses and programs and make recommendations regarding improvements to the appropriate administrators.

Review and make recommendations regarding funding requested by Internship Programs, and monitor the expenditures of those same programs.

Make recommendations to the university administration regarding any matters that affect the safety and well-being of students in internship and applied learning courses or programs.

Updated: September 8, 2016